

The 4th Reaching out in Mind Body and Spirit

A conference for Christians ministering within New Spirituality contexts

Friday 30th June - Sunday 2nd July 2017 Wilson Carlile Centre Sheffield

Hosted by Steve Hollinghurst of the Church Army Training Team
+ worldwide practitioners sharing stories of mission in New Spirituality contexts

About the conference

This is the fourth conference for those who are, our wish to be, expressing Christian faith within the context of New Spiritualities with roots in New Age and Contemporary Paganism. It is a place to share our experiences and insights, and bring our hopes and questions. Participants come from a wide range of churches, organisations and Christian traditions.

We will have with us Phil Wyman from Salem Massachusetts who works with Pagans and others in his local context and places like Burning Man; other international contributions; people updating about the progress of their work; and a book launch. There will be plenary sessions, enculturated worship and open space for our own topics and practical training. There will also be a market place where people can show what they are doing in their context.

Details

The conference will run from dinner on Friday to after lunch on Sunday. All meals will be provided (breakfast in accommodation). The full programme will follow later. Sheffield has good rail, road and air access.

The cost of the conference is £90 per person. There is some accommodation on site with some double rooms. This costs £30 per person per night – less for couples in double rooms. This is limited so offered on a first booking basis. There are local hotels at good rates for those who book later. Booking requires a £50 deposit. We reserve the right to keep this if a place booked is unfilled.
